A hand-drawn contour map on a grid background. The map features several concentric, irregular closed loops representing different levels. A straight line with an arrow at the top right passes through the center of the loops. Various numerical labels are placed around and within the loops: '40' is at the bottom left; '41' is near the center; '43' and '44' are on the left side; '46' is at the top right; '47' is at the top; '49' is on the right side; and '42' and '45' are at the bottom right. Small dots mark specific points on the loops, and arrows indicate directions or distances between some of these points.
